You asked... we listened... and now here it is! Greg Merrill is returning to California CASA to lead another session centered on Motivational Interviewing. The session will briefly summarize the core skills already presented and then dive directly into applying that knowledge through demonstrations, exercises and collaborative conversations for the whole group. Join us for an interactive, applications driven presentation that will help CASAs utilize Motivational Interviewing techniques. Please be sure to watch the recording of the first session and join us to dig deeper on using this important skill.

About the presenter: Greg Merrill is currently a clinical social worker at UCSF Medical Center where he supports patients with life threatening illness and their families. With over 30 years of experience, he has taught social work at the UC Berkeley School of Social Welfare, served as the Social Work Supervisor at UCSF's Trauma Recovery and Rape Treatment Center at Zuckerberg San Francisco General Hospital, and the Director of Client & Advocacy Services at Community United Against Violence.
